Pierce Distribution Services Company

Kevin Hogan Writes...

Well, Spring is upon us regardless of where you live in the country. That brings rain, warmth, thunderstorms, and tornadoes. It is so nice to see the sun on a regular basis here in the Northwest.

The plants seem to be busy other than our Rockford plant. The city of Rockford doesn't have the manufacturing as it use to. I reviewed the past years and realized it never did. Our customers use to not mind shipping their parts to Rockford for packaging but now, if the volumes warrant it, they want it close to their operation. That is why Pierce started opening satellite operations across the country years ago. It works well for the customer and Pierce but takes a toll on our home plant. When I started working at Pierce, we had 4 – 6 local plants. Now, most of those facilities are Jerding from Ripley on outside our local area. We 2/27. David Frye have or use to have plants in (Corporate) 12 on 2/20. Chicago (3), Kentucky (2), Randy Terrille (Vegas) 13 Tennessee (4), Texas (1), years on 2/7, Jerry South Carolina (1), Aurora, IL Hankins (Ripley) 18 years (1), Peoria, IL (1), Wisconsin on 2/20. Andy Oltremari (1), Ohio (1), Nevada (1) and (Corporate) 19 years on Oregon (1). I am sure Dino or 2/16 and Donna Oliver Tony would correct me if I (Ripley) 23 years on 2/5. made a mistake and left one out.

I would like to wish a Happy Birthday to all celebrating Birthdays in February, March, and April.

We had no milestone anniversaries in February but plenty of notables. We had 10 people celebrating 12 years; Teresa Scott, Debra Isom, Londell Currie, Rachel Langley, Marcko Clemons, Mary Smith, Leslie Mayberry, Balinda Hairfield, Jeffrey Graves, Lisa Finch, Gerhard

We had 2 milestone anniversaries in March: Gabrielle John and Linda Rhyne both from Ripley 5 years on 3/11. There was one notable anniversary, James Story (Ripley) 13 years on 3/28.

We would like to thank all Pierce Associates who are celebrating anniversaries for your commitment and dedication to Pierce.

Annex Foreman Reth Chey retired after 22 years! We had a company-wide lunch in his honor. He is really one of the nicest, kindest people I know.

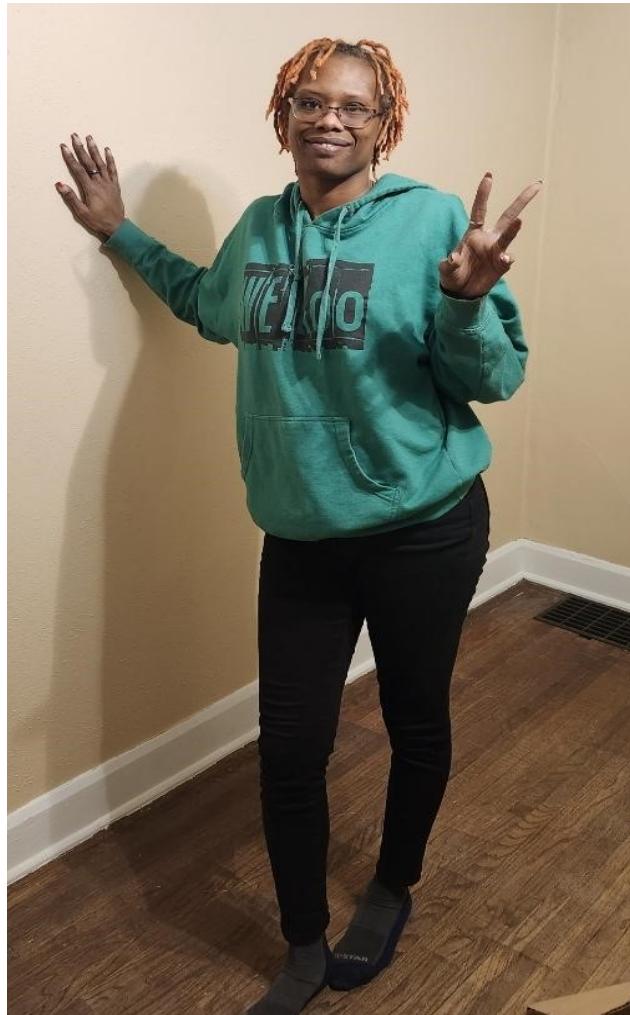

Annex assistant foreman, Luis Vazquez (17 years) will step into the foreman role with Ricky Palm (5 years) as his assistant.

Well-Being Website January/February 2024

Healthcare and medical insurance is confusing. We want to help you make educated decisions when it comes to getting and paying for healthcare. Here are some important terms that you should know and understand. Many of these, if not all of them will apply to you when you use your medical insurance plan for care.

Premium

The amount paid by an employee and employer for health insurance coverage, typically every pay period.

Deductible

The amount an individual and/or family must pay out of pocket before their insurance begins to cover costs.

Coinsurance

Many insurance plans have coinsurance instead of, or in addition to copays; this is the sharing of costs between your insurance plan and the member; members pay a percentage of the costs and the insurance pays the rest. Example if you receive a medical service that costs $1,000 and you have a 20% coinsurance, you would paid $200 and the insurance would pay the remaining 80% or $800.

Out-of-Pocket Expenses/Limit

Expenses that are not covered by insurance and are paid by the member. Each medical plan has an out-of-pocket maximum that is the maximum dollar amount you pay each plan year and then the medical plan pays 100% of the costs.

Out-of-Pocket Maximum

The maximum amount an individual will have to pay for covered medical expenses during a plan year.

Provider Network

A group of doctors, hospitals and other healthcare facilities that have agreed to provide services to individuals with a particular insurance plan.

Ripley Writes...

WHAT A BLESSING!

Travis Shaw - Associate of the Month (March 2024)

What I expected to be a short interview with our newest "Associate of the Month", actually turned into almost an hour of conversation with one of the most interesting men I have ever met. First of all, please welcome Travis Shaw as Ripley's Plant 7 associate of the month. Mr. Shaw became a full time Pierce associate on February 14, 2024. He currently works in our woodshop department, with no woodworking experience, and was nominated by 1st shift floor supervisor James Story. James, like me, was impressed by Travis' work ethics and respect he has earned from his fellow workers, especially his trainer, Jeff Graves. A "big cut up", you bet! And how did Travis end up in Ripley TN after being born in Eupora, MS (near Tupelo?) At the age of 8, he and Mom (Mrs. Dorisie Richmond) moved from Mississippi to Detroit for 35 years. And while growing up (at 12) became a member of a competitive dance group specializing in Motown music, where he met Motown's "Dramatics" singing group and became friends with members of the singing group while joining the group on stage. He plays the piano and guitar and developed a love for gospel music. Did I forget to say he's a certified Interior/Exterior decorator? Travis loves challenges as we learned of his work background. He especially enjoyed working at General Motors before plant closed, the hospital setting as an equipment technician providing hospital beds (North Charleston South Carolinas for ten years) for the NICU units (neonatal for babies) and a short time as a correctional officer. He followed his Mom to Ripley after she married his step dad. After his death, Mom (age 76) needed her son's help and Travis moved in with her. "I came to Pierce and started in Service Parts and learned of an opening in Woodshop. I had never used a saw, but wanted to learn—I pride myself in learning new things, as I take direction well. I so enjoy the Woodshop associates, they are so helpful in working with me. Travis was visibly humbled by this recognition. We appreciate him and value him as a Pierce Team member.
